Prayer Time: There is a slight change to the order of your prayer this week, and moving forward, as you grow in your relationship with and approach to God.

Spend at least 1 hour of dedicated prayer this week. (Set the time aside in your schedule.)

Before you head into your prayer time begin thanking God for His goodness, mercy, patience, and kindness to you and others. Prepare your heart with songs and melodies to the Lord about His never-ending goodness and kindness. (Consciously put aside any concerns you have about your life, pressing questions on your mind, and topics that you “feel” are important to you and your life that you want to talk about. Trust that the Lord already knows what you need before you ask and that He is on top of the concerns of your life.) Prepare yourself to listen to your loving Father and friend. Let your love for the Godhead rise in your heart and mind. * If you are aware of any sin or disobedience that you haven't yet repented of, ask the Lord for forgiveness. And, let those sins be washed away under the blood of Jesus.*

[This process is not about provoking an emotional response from yourself. Its purpose is to move aside common hinderances that interfere with you clearly hearing from the Lord. It also quiets your concerns that tend to distract you and over-occupy your mind, facilitates your ability to cast your cares over on Jesus, and release your faith.]

When you're ready, sit in quiet time and ask the Lord, “God, what is on Your heart? Is there anything that You want to talk about right now? Is there anything that you want me to pray for some else concerning?” (Don't be repetitive or beg God. Simply ask and then sit quietly and listen to the Holy Spirit.)

As the Lord speaks, listen carefully and quietly. Don't rush, cut God off, or try to finish His sentences. Listen. When you believe you have heard the Holy Spirit, write it on a piece of paper, and repeat to the Holy Spirit what you heard Him say. Then ask the Holy Spirit, “Holy Spirit, did/have I understood what You said, correctly?” Wait and listen for Holy Spirit's response. He will confirm or correct you on what you heard. (Don't worry, He loves you and wants you to understand.)

Lab Worksheets: Basic Training

If the Holy Spirit confirms “Yes, you’ve got it!” (It may come like a positive, upturning feeling/tone in your spirit.) Write the time and date next to what you wrote.

If the Holy Spirit corrects “No, that’s not it.” (It may come like a down turning feeling/tone in your spirit.) Then, slowly pass over each word and ask the Holy Spirit, word for word, if that individual word is correct. Continue and correct the words as you go until you have accurately received Holy Spirit’s message. Lastly, time and date your paper next to what the Lord said.

Put the word that you received in a special place. Refer to it often and be sure to believe and obey whatever the Lord says to you!

Notes from your prayer time:

God's Warriors Lab Worksheets: Basic Training

List three things that stood out to you about the covered lessons:

Reflection: Listen to hear what Holy Spirit is saying to you about these three things. What does He want you to know, hear, or understand?

Note: The word of God is a mirror for us to see our own reflection before God (not to scrutinize anyone else or their “failure”). Whenever standing in the mirror of the word of God and reflecting on yourself and your life, Holy Spirit should be with you. Holy Spirit will teach you what He is saying, how to understand the information, how to analyze it, interpret the information that He is giving you and correctly arrive at His desired destination of growth or correction/conclusion. He will also show you how to apply it correctly in your life so that you see, know, and understand the truth and are subsequently made free. DO NOT relive your or anyone else's past – it is under the Blood of Jesus!
